ABOUT US

Mr. Prashant Kumar Shukla
Managing Director - Nakshaa

NAKSHAA is a seven-letter word. But to us, it defines what we do, and what we are. We established our organization in 2019 ourselves with the ambition of becoming a multi-disciplinary civil engineering and various engineering consultancy firm. In less than a decade, we have diversified into almost every sector of engineering. With an enviable track record.

Since its inception, NAKSHAA refused to set boundaries defining its capabilities. As a management Director member, I find this attitude to be the most valuable trait of our company. We take up challenging projects that others find difficult to execute.

Our Quality Management System has been certified by ISO 9001:2015, and Our Information Security Management System has been certified by ISO 27001:2013.

We have ventured into international projects as well, successfully delivering projects in a host of other countries. Our journey is a result of the trust reposed by clients on Team NAKSHAA.

The road ahead is not, however, without challenges. With new technologies coming out every day, We must never lose sight of our work's larger strategic impact and the synergy with business goals. We need to become efficient macro-managers, without losing focus of the micro details. I believe, every growing firm has to develop this cascading approach. Yet at our current rate, I can convincingly say that NAKSHAA will soon transform into a global engineering consulting firm and a name to be reckoned with.

At NAKSHAA, we aspire to excel every day, steadfast in our goals – To explore, engineer and deliver...
